Why choose a Faith Health specialist? Members of your community.

Faith Health is sustained by a workforce of roughly 1,400 employees, including physicians, advanced practice providers and staff members who live in the same communities as the patients they treat. They are your neighbors, volunteers, parents, coaches and consumers in the local economy. In that sense, Faith Health's impact extends well beyond medicine. It supports local jobs, stabilizes families, and helps make the region a place where people can live and work with greater confidence that care will be there when they need it.
