Hunter Safety Reminders & Tips:

Firearm Handling Rules

• Treat every gun as loaded: Never assume a firearm is empty, even if someone just handed it to you; always open the breach to check it yourself.
• Control the muzzle: Keep your firearm pointed in a safe direction at all times, and never point it at anything you do not intend to shoot.
• Keep your finger off the trigger: Rest your finger outside the trigger guard until your sights are locked on the target and you are ready to make a clean shot.
• Unload at obstacles: Clear the chamber or completely unload your gun before climbing a fence, crossing a slick log, or navigating a stream.

Visibility & Target Identification

• Wear blaze orange: Make yourself clearly visible to other hunters by wearing high-visibility orange clothing, and avoid colors or patterns that mimic game.
• Identify your target—and what is beyond: Know what is directly in front of, near, and behind your target before pulling the trigger, keeping ricochets in mind.
• Be cautious with antlers/decoys: Take extra care when packing out game or using decoys so other hunters do not mistake your movement or gear for an animal.

Navigation & Emergency Preparation

• Tell someone your plans: Let a trusted family member or friend know your exact location, your intended route, and your expected return time.
• Don't rely solely on electronics: Cell phones and GPS units can lose battery, break, or lose signal; always carry a physical topographic map and a compass (and know how to read them).
• Pack basic survival gear: Bring extra layers of weather-appropriate clothing, a flashlight, a charged phone, a loud whistle, and a basic first-aid kit.

Consider these gratifying Thanksgiving facts

Thanksgiving is a time to gather with family and friends and reflect on one's blessings.

- Thanksgiving is largely modeled on a 17th century harvest feast shared by the English settlers and the Wampanoag tribe.

- The National Turkey Federation says around 45 million turkeys will be eaten on Thanksgiving, which equates to about 720 million pounds of turkey being consumed (with the average turkey size being 16 pounds).

- The Butterball hotline answers roughly 100,000 calls every year on its turkey question hotline.

- In 1953, the Swanson company overestimated the number of frozen turkeys it would sell for the holiday season by 26 tons. Rather than waste the meat, Swanson sliced it up, repackaged it and created the first frozen TV dinners.

- Thanksgiving in America may be older than many recognize. While Thanksgiving is largely tied to the 17th century settlers, the National Parks Service says in 1565 Spanish settlers in St. Augustine (now Florida) celebrated by having a meal to which they invited the native Seloy tribe. The Spanish served pork stew, sea biscuits, red wine, and garbanzo beans. Some say the Seloy contributed turkey, venison and maize.

- Thanksgiving didn't become a civic holiday until Abraham Lincoln made it one after the Civil War tragedy. Thanksgiving was declared a national holiday on October 20, 1864.

- The Pilgrims did not refer to themselves as "pilgrims." They used the word "separatists" as they were separating themselves from a larger belief system.

- In addition to the United States, Canada, Grenada, Liberia, the Philippines, Saint Lucia, and the Netherlands celebrate their own versions of Thanksgiving.

- Each year, the American president "pardons" a turkey from slaughter on Thanksgiving. This tradition dates back to when Abraham Lincoln's son was upset that his family's turkey that was going to be killed for Thanksgiving dinner.

- According to the U.S. Calorie Control Council (CCC), an average American may consume 4,500 calories and 229 grams of fat on Thanksgiving Day.

- The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is an annual tradition. People line the parade route in New York City or tune in to watch the parade on television. It originated in 1924 and the famed balloons were added in 1927.
